Bush, Cockrell & Fesler's great combination sale of horses, jacks and Jennets, Feb. 5-7.

Miss Georgia Stedil has accepted a position in the Sharpshooter College, and entered upon the discharge of her duties yesterday.

Cassidy & Sutton's undertaking department is complete, with W. E. Cassidy as undertaker, and Mr. Dorsey can be had, if desired, in one hour's notice.

John L. Stephens rented the Mt. Sterling and Jeffersonville pike for the ensuing year for $1,276 and 350 rods of rock.

The Western Union Telegraph Co. will run a line to Mt. Sterling. This will be good news to all who have telegraphing to do. Lexington Transcript.

Those needing Mr. Dorsey's professional services will please call him over the telephone and he will be with them on one hour's notice, or leave orders at Cassidy & Sutton's.

The little son of W. B. Green, of Grassy Lick, met with a severe accident on Friday. By some means he pulled a kettle of boiling water off the stove, throwing it all over his body and badly scalding himself.

Wm. H. Boardman and Ben Judy have contracted to build the new store and lodge room at Sideview, Ky., and will begin work at once. They have contracted with Burton & McCormick, of this city, to furnish the lumber, and will have the house completed by the 1st of April.

Prof. George Hunt, who is a candidate for Superintendent of Public Instruction, is making an active canvass for the office, and it now looks as if he will be a hard man to down. Prof. Hunt is a genial, pleasant gentleman, who will not doubt make an efficient and painstaking officer, if the trust is given to his hands.

Mr. J. S. Clark, of J. S. Clark & Co. expert designers of monumental work of Louisville, and who did the work on the splendid Reid monument in Maplewood Cemetery, was in the city Tuesday on a flying business trip. The firm, of which Mr. Clark is the head, has designed and built some of the finest monuments in the State, and now has under contract the $20,000 Alamo monument at Austin, Texas.

The average receipts of the street railway since it has been in operation has been about $300 per month. Considering the length of the line this is an excellent showing, and we venture to predict that if the line is extended, it will prove one of the best paying investments in our city. Winchester Democrat.

Judge McKee, what has become of your charter for a street railway in Mt. Sterling? Why not build, there's millions in it.

The many friends of Col. S. F. B. Morse, General Passenger Agent of the K. C., will be glad to learn his services have been secured by the L. & N. as General Traveling Passenger Agent of that great system. Colonel Morse is a special gentleman, a capable business man and one of the most popular railroad officials in this entire section. The Louisville and Nashville will find they have made no mistake in placing Col. Morse in the above named position.

On Friday night companions J. A. Ramsey, J. W. Adams, W. A. Atter, Geo. Richter, C. E. Rees and Ellis Baxter went to Mt. Sterling where in accordance with the request of Winchester Chapter, No. 12, the Royal Purple degree was conferred on the late three by Mr. Horch Chapter, No. 12 of that city. The Winchester members speak in the highest terms of the reception by their Mt. Sterling brethren, and of the imposing ceremony in which the exalted rite was performed. Winchester Democrat.

The Owensville Outlook has changed hands, Bro. D. S. Estill retires and is succeeded by Mr. J. H. Heron, who desires to give his full energies to the interests of the paper. We speak for Mr. Heron a cordial welcome by the readers and advertisers of the Outlook. We wish him the best success, and hope he will get the paper full of interesting and profitable news. Mr. Estill goes to Mt. Sterling, where he will engage in business.

You want to secure a bargain in a fine horse, be at the Bush, Cockrell & Fesler sale, Feb. 5-7.

Advertising is a business transaction. Put your money where it will do the most good. The worth of an advertisement is based upon the number and class of those it reaches.

We are willing to show to any advertiser who desires it our list, when he can judge for himself if our space is worth the money we ask for it.

Cassidy & Sutton's undertaking department is complete, with W. E. Cassidy as undertaker, and Mr. Dorsey can be had, if desired, in one hour's notice.

At Home Again.

TABB & GAITSKILL.

Daniel Peggs, daughter of John Peggs, near Grassy Lick, died on Wednesday last, the 28th inst. The little one had been with them but two short years, but had become the light of the household, and when loving hands had done all that could be done; loving hearts almost broke at the parting. The body was taken to Mason county and buried in the family burying ground. Mr. Peggs and family have the heartfelt sympathy of their friends and neighbors in their bereavement.

On Monday one George Stevens (alias John Stevens, alias Doe Stevens), who had been stopping in the county for some days, went to Radford & Burbridge's livery stable and hired a horse, saying he desired to go to the Levee. Not having shown up by Tuesday noon the owners notified officers Taul and Tipton, who at once started upon the trail of the thief. They found the horse had been sold in Winchester on Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock to some Lexington party; these parties had later on traded the horse to a gentleman near Clintonville. Mr. Taul went to secure the horse and Mr. Tipton followed the thief. After spending an amount of trouble on the hunt, Mr. Tipton succeeded in locating the Stevens on Premier street in Louisville, at the house of a brother-in-law and quickly took him into custody. Thursday night saw the thief safely domiciled in castle Tipton, taking a much needed rest till he can be given a berth in the pen. Stevens is supposed to be a man who is badly wanted in Lincoln county for malicious cutting and wounding.

New South Nat'l Bld'g & Loan Ass'n, of Cumberland Gap, Tenn.

Authorized Capital, $10,000,000; paid up capital $100,000. Chartered by the State of Tennessee. Its prime object is to assist worthy persons who own town lots to build and own their own homes at a small expense by loaning them money in long time and at a low rate of interest. Money invested in the stock of the Association will pay ready if not better prices than any money invested in bank stock, at the current price of bank stock, and is much safer, all their loans being made to members of the Association and secured by mortgage on unincumbered town or city lots.

I have been appointed a Commissioner and will take expedition in working to get the Association in working order, in selling them and getting loans.

Mrs. M. W. Williams left Tuesday for Memphis, Tenn., to remain during the winter.

J. S. Roberts, of Mt. Sterling, was in town Friday. (Beatville Cor. Herald Green Herald.)

Charles Turner, of Mt. Sterling, was a guest of the Day House Saturday. (Herald Green Herald.)

W. H. Ramsey and E. R. Hall, of Grassy Lick, are the guests of W. N. Ramsey. Winchester Democrat.

A. J. Cassidy is on a business and pleasure trip to Kansas City. He will probably be gone several weeks.

Roger and Robert Barnes returned on Friday from Berkeley College where they have attended school the past five months.

R. E. McCormick, of Lexington, was in the city several days, the past week looking after some of his business affairs here.

Mrs. Geo. H. Harris, daughter and two sons, of Fair Haven, Va., are visiting Mrs. Harris' brother, C. H. Bryan, on High street.

J. C. Childs, of Rome, Ga., son of J. J. Childs, general Superintendent of the gas works in this city, visited his father the past week.

John McGilway has been assigned to Labor & Graham's distillery, Franklin county, and left for his post of duty Saturday.

Geo. W. Bramlett, of Nicholas county, one of the most extensive and best known stock and tobacco dealers in the State, was in the city this week.

R. A. Mason and S. C. Bascom left on last Tuesday for Haskell, Texas. Mr. Mason returns to his former home and Mr. Bascom looking after his Texas lands.

Misses Cora and Lena Tipton, two estimable young ladies from Mt. Sterling, are visiting the family of Albert Young. (Bethel Cor. Carlisle Mercury.)

Dr. W. C. Nesbitt, the genial and popular druggist of Nicholas county, was in the city the past week, and was kept busy answering the many pleasant greetings he received from his host of friends.

James O'Connell has returned to this city and will make it his future home. Mr. O'Connell is one of the best workmen within our knowledge. This fact, any man who is cursed with tender feet, and has had him clothe them for him, can testify to.

Dr. W. C. Nesbitt, of Owensville, was in the city last week looking around with a view of locating in our midst. The Doctor is a fine dentist and a pleasant gentleman, and has a number of friends and relations in our city and county.

Mrs. T. G. Julian, of Mt. Sterling, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Chennault, on North Broadway. Mr. and Mrs. John G. Winn, nee Miss Katherine Pewitt, of Mt. Sterling, are visiting the family of Mr. Richard Spurr, near this city. Lexington Press.

Prof. George Hunt, of Fayette county, a ripe scholar, an experienced educator, and a true and faithful Christian gentleman, is a candidate for Superintendent of Public Instruction. Prof. Hunt has been in the city for several days the past week, and has made himself many friends in our county during his brief stay among us.

The Pulpit and Pastor.

Rev. F. M. Shront, pastor United Brethren Church, Blue Mound, Kan., says: "I feel it my duty to tell what wonders Dr. King's New Discovery has done for me. My lungs were badly diseased, and my parishoners thought I could live only a few weeks. I took five bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery and am sound and well, gaining 26 lbs in weight."

Arthur Love, Manager Love's Funny Folks Combination, writes: "After a thorough trial and convincing evidence, I am confident Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption beats 'em all, and cures when everything else fails. The greater kindness I can do my many friends is to urge them to try it." Free trial bottles at W. S. Lloyd's drug store. Regular sizes 50c and $1.00.

Born Jan. 27, to the wife of John Clinkbeard, a daughter.

Last Wednesday, Jan. 28, we had the pleasure of attending the "golden wedding" of J. J. Kinsler and wife. At noon an elaborate and tastefully prepared dinner was served. The aged bride and groom received a number of handsome presents. The day was spent in social converse, interspersed with some excellent vocal and instrumental music. Few people live to enjoy the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding and none who have lived more honorably than this venerable couple. May our aged friends live to enjoy many more such happy anniversaries and may the evening of their lives be filled with the soft glow, loving and genial warmth and tender tints of the glorious golden sunset, is the sincere wish of the writer.

RELIGIOUS.

Elder J. C. Frank, of the Christian Church at Lancaster, read his annual report for 1890: "Over $2,200 was raised by voluntary contributions, and within ten days after the close $1,500 was promptly paid to the pastor and all incidental expenses met. A surplus of $27.40 remains in the treasury. The preacher pertinently remarked that the $2,200 were free will offerings from the members and not 'oyster and ice cream' proceeds. (Ky. Register.

Rev. Thomas Cummins, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Richmond, Ky., has resigned his charge and accepted the pastorate of the First Presbyterian Church of Henderson. His congregation objected seriously to parting with him, but he thought his field of usefulness would be widened by a removal to the latter place.

The people of Richmond have contributed two hundred dollars to the fund for the relief of Rev. George O. Barnes, now in straitened circumstances in England. The amount raised is said to be $800. (Kentucky Register.

The meeting at the Church of Christ on Fairfax street is still in progress. Up to last night there had been eighteen additions by letter and five by confession. (Winchester Democrat.

Evangelist B. F. Clay, of the Christian church, who went from Kentucky to Salt Lake City, writes encouragingly of the religious outlook there.

Rev. Dr. A. Henderson, pastor of the Methodist church at Lagrange, died at that place on Friday. He had suffered a stroke of paralysis some ten days before and never rallied. He was buried at Georgetown on Saturday.
